Reference: Revision to the Installed Capacity Requirement for the New York Control Area for the Period Beginning on May 1, 2022 and Ending on April 30, 2023

On December 16, 2021, you filed on behalf of the New York State Reliability Council, L.L.C. (NYSRC) a revised Installed Capacity Requirement for the New York Control Area (NYCA) for the period beginning on May 1, 2022 and ending on April 30, 2023 (2022-2023 Capability Year). You state that a required Installed Reserve Margin of 19.6% for the NYCA for the 2022-2023 Capability Year was adopted based on a technical study, the NYCA Installed Capacity Requirements for the Period May 2022 through April 2023, Technical Study Report, and other relevant factors, to satisfy the NYSRC's resource adequacy criteria. Pursuant to authority delegated to the Director, Division of Electric Power Regulation – East, under 18 C.F.R. § 375.307 (2021), the submittal is accepted for filing, effective February 15, 2022, as requested.

The filing was publicly noticed, with interventions and protests due on or before January 6, 2021. Pursuant to Rule 214 of the Commission's regulations (18 C.F.R. § 385.214 (2021)), notices of intervention, timely-filed motions to intervene, and any unopposed motions to intervene out-of-time filed before the issuance date of this order are granted. Granting a late intervention at this stage of the proceeding will not disrupt the proceeding or place additional burdens on existing parties. No protests or adverse comments were filed.

This action does not constitute approval of any service, rate, charge, classification, or any rule, regulation, contract, or practice affecting such rate or service provided for in the filed document(s); nor shall such action be deemed as recognition of any claimed contractual right or obligation affecting or relating to such service or rate; and such action is without prejudice to any findings or orders which have been or may hereafter be made by the Commission in any proceeding now pending or hereafter instituted by or against the applicant.

This order constitutes final agency action. Requests for rehearing by the Commission may be filed within 30 days of the date of issuance of this order, pursuant to 18 C.F.R. § 385.713 (2021).
