Reliability Rule I.2 Narrative (R3)

The data provided pursuant to this rule is a document depicting outage data statistics consistent with what the NYISO has historically provided to, and has been accepted by, NYSRC as demonstrating compliance with this rule. The 2017-2021 data used in the 2023 IRM has been provided to ICS and the EC as part of the assumptions matrix which was approved at the August and October EC meetings.
